

Sylvia Richman has been teaching art to children of 1 - 85 years for the past 18 years. At Aberthau her main work has been with the Tots and Moms, and the little ones have been amassing fantastic Scrapbooks of Art including finger painting, marker coloring and stamping. Sylvia has a bachelor of fine arts degree from Calgary University and a teaching certificate from Simon Fraser. She is also a practicing visual artist and shows her artwork around Vancouver quite often.
