2 For Tea

December 2 - 7

"2 for Tea is a truly fun riff on British farce that's steeped in playfulness, meticulous physical comedy, and an unabashed love for the unexpected." CV Victoria

"2 for Tea is an irresistible delight. Their unusual combination of verbal and physical comedy with improvisation involving audience members put the 'play' (as in spontaneous fun) back into 'play' (as in theatre). One reason for the glee that greets the performers is the way they remind an adult audience of the children they once were, and still are. ★★★★★ Stage Door, Toronto.

LIFE AND DEPTH PRODUCTIONS

Rebel Women

January 3 - 11

Early 20th century. A poor cotton mill worker is great friends with the daughter of a Viceroy of India. An illiterate cockney housewife is teaching a Canadian university graduate, a young girl is being coached to convert British Columbia to the cause. Called to battle by a diminutive, delicate lady, as battle scarred and hardened as any grunt, the front line of the militant suffragettes contained a motley bunch of women. Join them as they are swept up in the maelstrom that will alter their lives forever, cause governments to fall, and shape democracy for us all.

VITAL SPARK THEATRE

The Pitmen Painters

Jan 24 - Feb 16

In 1934, a group of Ashington miners and a dental mechanic hired a professor from Newcastle University to teach an Art Appreciation evening class. Unable to understand each other, they embarked on one of the most unusual experiments in British art as the pitmen learned to become painters. Within a few years the most avant-garde artists became their friends, their work was taken for prestigious collections and they were celebrated throughout the British art world; but every day they worked, as before, down the mine. A true story made into a heartwarming play.
